

THE RUSSIAN WRITING CENTERS CONSORTIUM

fosters sustainable excellence in academic and scientific communication through dissemination of best practices in teaching academic writing and developing soft skills.

The Consortium aims

- to create a favorable environment for professional development of tutors and directors of Writing Centers;
- to support the establishment of academic Writing Centers throughout Russia and disseminate best practices, thus meeting the needs and requirements of the Russian academic community;
- to establish relations with governmental bodies, research organizations, secondary schools, scholarly journals, and media to foster academic writing in the Russian education and educational policy.

Projects

- Writing Centers in Multilingual Settings:
A Workbook by Eve Smith English Language Specialist,
Russia, 2016
- All-Russia Science Essay Competition, 2017